

Resources

Recertification Forms These forms are provided for printing purposes before your appointment at the DBHA office. If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to use the form located on the Contact page.

- Download Recertification Form Delray Beach Community Land Trust (DBCLT) The DBCLT is one of several affordable and workforce housing initiatives that City residents, government leaders, and concerned stakeholders recently created to provide a middle ground where both the individual families and the community at large share in the long-term affordability and wealth creation that results from the wise investment of public money in privately owned housing.

- Visit Website The Center for Technology, Enterprise & Development, Inc. (TED Center) The TED Center is an economic development agency that transforms communities through collaborative partnerships and educational programs. The Center delivers its services within three distinct program areas: Development, Micro Enterprise and Training, and facilitates research through the H-P Technology Resource Center.

- Visit Website GoSection8.com GOsection8.com provides property rental listings directly to Public Housing Authorities. Our listings are passed out to hundreds of "walk-in" tenants seeking Section 8 rental housing daily. Additionally, GOsection8.com maximizes rental listing exposure by allowing properties to be viewed online.

- Visit Website Florida's Internet-Based Apartment Search Tool A listing of vacant and available apartments that have been made available through assistance from state and local affordable housing programs. Allows anyone to search by city or county, by rent levels, by apartment size and features needed, as well as other location needs.

- Visit Website